

Site Relocation Services

My place of business is severely damaged. Where can I go?

If your place of business becomes damaged or destroyed, ITC and its staff of risk management experts can help.

When it comes to crisis management, we can assist you in locating an acceptable alternate work site if a disaster leaves your primary site inoperable or inaccessible. Based on your requirements such as geography, site size, and access, ITC can help you find alternate sites from which to choose.

Once you select an alternate site, ITC can help coordinate the relocation of your business, fit-up and business cut-over efforts to the new site.

We have helped a number of our clients relocate their company to a new site. Let one of our recovery and relocation specialists help your business get back to doing business.

Not only does ITC have experience in Site Relocation Services, we offer expertise in a variety of risk mitigation areas, including contingency planning, disaster recovery planning, IT disaster recovery, risk management assessment, security risk management and more.

When it comes to Site Relocation, or any of the other risk management services we offer, contact ITC today and get Total Protection for your organization.

ITC is your Total Protection Solutions Provider.
